A Fresh New Look for 2008! Polar Online Directory

Polar Communications is excited to announce the unveiling of our new 2007-08 Polar online directory. This new online directory is interactive, user-friendly, and maintains the look and feel of our printed directory. Flip through the white and yellow pages or search residential or business listings by name, keyword, phone number, or yellow page heading. Click on any of the website or e-mail address links to immediately connect to the business or resident you are looking to contact.

Important Privacy Notice to Polar Customers

Polar Communications and its subsidiaries protect the confidentiality of its telecommunications customers consistent with applicable law, including the FCC's regulations governing Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI).

What is CPNI?

CPNI is information Polar obtains or creates in the normal course of providing local or long distance telecommunications services to you. This information includes the quantity and types of telecommunications services you currently receive, how you use them and related billing information, such as call destination, location, and amount of use. CPNI does not include your telephone number, name, and address or any other readily available information.

What does this mean for you?

The FCC has adopted security measures to protect customer's CPNI. Therefore, Polar will be following strict guidelines to assure CPNI is protected and we are compliant with FCC regulation. When visiting either of our offices, a Photo ID will be required to obtain or discuss information regarding your account. When calling our offices, you will need to identify characteristics of your account for authentication purposes. Copies of bills or bill detail must be mailed to the billing address listed in our database.

Authorized Account Users Only

Anyone calling in regarding information on an account must be authorized and therefore listed in the account. For example, if a spouse, child, parent, etc. calls in regarding an account, their name MUST be authorized on the account to request information or make any changes.

Polar Communications takes customer privacy issues very seriously. We do not sell or release customer information. If you have any questions regarding CPNI, please contact our office at 701.284.7221. We are open Monday-Friday, 7:30 AM - 6:30 PM and Saturdays, 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM.

Polar Sponsors Trip to Washington, D.C. for Area Youth

Polar will again sponsor a High School Junior student to the National Telephone Cooperative Association (NTCA) Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) Youth Tour in Washington, DC. The 2008 Tour is scheduled for May 31 - June 4.

Youth tour participants will receive a first-hand glimpse at how the legislative and regulatory decisions made in Washington, D.C., affect how their local service providers operate in their own hometowns. The trip features a comprehensive overview of the telecommunications industry, including careers in telecom as well as the critical role that telecommunications plays in rural America.

In addition to the educational component of this trip, the youth tour also introduces the students to various historical landmarks throughout the nation's capital. Visits to the Vietnam, Korean and World War II memorials, the U.S. Capitol, the Supreme Court, Mount Vernon, the Smithsonian Institution, Arlington National Cemetery, the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials are among the highlights of the trip.

To qualify, the student's parents must be subscribers of Polar and the student must be age 16 or 17 years old at the time of the youth tour. Deadline for entries is March 21, 2008. Applications can be obtained from your High School Guidance Counselor or at www.thinkpolar.com.
