

a better experience starts here.

Something exciting is happening!

We're bringing fiber to the homes and businesses in your neighborhood. Polar Communications is a local telecommunications cooperative serving the Red River Valley and surrounding areas. We've been here since 1952, delivering the state-of-the-art technologies our neighbors need to work, learn, and connect while giving back to this area we call home. Our roots are here in the heartland, and we see the value in investing in its future, solving challenges and taking actions that help our small towns - and the people in them - flourish.
